

Recreation

Recreation

- Article 18 of Existing License
- Facilities within the FERC Project Boundary:
  - Mokelumne River Day Use Area (MRDUA)
  - Camanche Hills Hunting Preserve (CHHP)
  - Camanche North Shore Recreation Area
  - Camanche South Shore Recreation Area
  - Pardee Recreation Area
- Recreation Management Plan
- Events & Public Involvement Opportunities

Snowmelt in the Mokelumne River is 90 percent of EBMUD's water supply.

MOKELUMNE WATERSHED

- Recreation Area
- Recreation Area Entrance
- EBMUD Property

Mokelumne River Day Use Area

Camanche Hills Hunting Preserve

Camanche North Shore Recreation Area

Camanche South Shore Recreation Area

Pardee Recreation Area

Mokelumne Area Trails

Mokelumne Coast To Crest Trail

- 29-mile hiking and equestrian trail
- John Bull Loop- 2.4-mile segment branching off the MCCT
- Independence Loop- 2-mile segment at MCCT eastern terminus

Trail access points:

- Camanche South Shore Staging Area- Equestrian and Hiking
- Cook Mesa- Hiking
- Campo Seco Staging Area- Equestrian and Hiking
- Rich Gulch- Hiking
- Middle Bar- Hiking

China Gulch Trail

- 4.9 miles trail or 9.8 miles round trip.
- China Gulch loop- 1.5-mile loop segment branching of the main trail.
- The China Gulch Trail system is multi-use for hikers and equestrians.

